LONDON, November 23.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague.

THE Pamphlet which the Court of France has publish'd to justify the sending away its Squadrons, is look'd upon as a sort of Manifesto against Great-tain; and the other Steps that it has taken in respect to the Quarrel between that Nation and Spain, are look'd upon as the Fore-runners of a Declaration of War. The British Minister at this Place has from thence took Occasion to confer with the Ministers of State, in order to point out to them a just manner of Judging of the Actions of the French Ministry, in what relates to Great-Britain. He told them, that hitherto most People thought his Nation would have first declared War against France, but from the Manner with which the last has express'd herself, there is Reason to believe that she will be beforehand with the British Court in this respect. That Minister at the same time again sounded the Members of the Regency upon the Dispositions of the Republick, and concerning the Dependance that Great-Britain might have upon it, in case of an open Rupture between his Britannick Majesty and France: To which they avoided giving him a positive Answer, saying, that they could not help yet building great Hopes upon the pacifick Sentiments of the Cardinal, which, they say, had remarkably appear'd in his calm and moderate Conduct since the Death of the Emperor, from which Event he might have drawn such great Advantages to the French Monarchy; notwithstanding this, his Actions have only tended to promote the Tranquility of Europe, and have been exactly agreeable to the Wishes of the Powers which have guarantied the Pragmatick Sanction: That there is all the Reason in the World to believe that the Cardinal would efficaciously labour to bring about an Accommodation between Great-Britain and Spain, provided that the Parties in War were seriously disposed thereto; and that it appears he is equally dispos'd to prevent the Disputes which the Succession of the late Emperor may possibly occasion.

France, by Reason of the Coldness which prevails between her and the Court of Great-Britain, has not caus'd her late Declaration of her Disposition to maintain the Pragmatick Sanction to be made to it: Wherefore the States General have thought proper to communicate it to his Britannick Majesty by Means of his Minister here.

Nov. 29. Saturday last his Majesty's Ship the Rose appointed Convoy to the Trade going to Carolina, and the Bahama Islands, being got down the Channel as far as the Start Point, her Commander, Capt. Frankland, perceived a Boat (which appear'd like a French Fishing-Boat) in Company with a small Sloop, and suspecting her to be a Spanish Privateer with a Prize, he ordered the Ships under his Convoy to make the best of their Way to Torbay, and himself gave Chace to the Boat, and in three Hours and a half came up with her, and she proving to be a Spanish Privateer, he took her. She is a Launch of about 20 Tons, rows with 14 Oars, and had 20 Men on Board when taken. She came from Port Passage the 22d of October, and two days before she was taken, from Conquet, a French Port near Brest. The Sloop, which was in her Company, proved to be a Prize which had been taken by her, call'd the Molly, John Westcomb, Master, from Hamble bound to Fowey.

We are certainly inform'd from Ireland, that since the Embargo came on, and the French Vessels unloaded, all sorts of Provisions have fallen mightily, especially Butter and Beef; the Butter is fallen from 1l. 15 s. 6d. to only 15 s. the Hundred Weight, and Beef from 2d Half-penny to 1d. Farthing a Pound, and that Grain is greatly fallen.

Octo. 30. Last Week the Rev. Dr. Barecroft, Secretary to the Society for propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts, waited on the Right Hon. the Lord Baltimore, to acquaint his Lordship that he was unanimously chosen a Member of the Society. His Lordship was pleased to thank them for the Honour they had done him, and to assure them that he would do his utmost towards furthering and promoting the good and pious Ends of the Society. It is to be hoped this will be a great Encouragement to the Missionaries in that Part of America, in which his Lordship has so large a Share of Property and so great a Patronage; his Lordship having the Advowson of no less than 36 Livings, most of them of considerable Value, in the Province of Maryland.

Dec. 4. By our Advices from Petersburgh, dated the 21st of last Month, N. S. we hear, that the Day before at three o'Clock in the Morning, the Velt Marshal Count Munich, at the Head of a Detachment of the Guards, went to the Duke of Courland's Palace, took him out of his Bed, bound him, and convey'd him to the Guard-house; from thence he was carried to the Monastery of Alexander Nesky, after which he was removed to the Castle of Schlusselbourgh, with his Wife and all his Family: They add, that when Count Munich signified the Order to the Duke of Courland, the latter drew his Sword in order to defend himself; but the Count immediately ordered several Officers to enter the Room and disarm him. The next Day the following Declaration was published at Petersburgh.

We JOHN III. By the Grace of God, Emperor and Sovereign of all the Russias, &c. &c.

'Tho' by Virtue of the Disposition made by her Imperial Majesty, the most illustrious and most potent Lady Anne Iwanowna, Empress and Sovereign of all the Russias, of glorious Memory, and made publick by our Declaration of the 29th of October, the most illustrious Ernest John, Duke of Courland, was appointed Regent of this Empire during our Minority, and that by this Disposition he was expressly enjoin'd to behave in his Regency conformable to the Laws and Ordinances enacted by her Imperial perial Majesty and her illustrious Predecessors, as also to take the utmost Care of her Health and Education, to have for our dear Parents and the Imperial Family the Esteem and Veneration which is due to them, and to provide them a Maintenance suitable to their Rank and Dignity; nevertheless, we have been informed, to our great Dissatisfaction, that the Duke of Courland, instead of performing those Duties pursuant to the Disposition, presumed, as soon as he had got the Reins of the Regency into his Hands, and even before the Body of her late Imperial Majesty was inhumed, to undertake several Things against the Laws and Ordinances; and, what was more aggravating, to express a notable Contempt to our most dear Parents, having on that Occasion made use of Menaces no way becoming him; so that not only our most dear Parents, but likewise our Person, as well as the Repose and Safety of the Empire, might have been brought into the greatest Danger: Wherefore, in Order to prevent all the Consequences of so manifest an Infringement of her late Imperial Majesty's Disposition, as well as the unguarded Conduct of the Duke of Courland, his dangerous Views, and his late Attempts against our most dear Parents, the Imperial Family, and the whole Empire, we have been obliged at the most humble and earnest Suit of all our faithful Subjects and States, as well Ecclesiastick as Secular, to divest the said Duke of Courland of the Regency, and to confer, at the same time, at the earnest Suit of our faithful Subjects, the Administration of our Empire of Russia during our Minority, on our most dear Lady Mother, Imperial Highness the Princess Anne, to whom we give by these Presents the Title of Grand Princess of all the Russias, and we likewise give her full Power to Exercise the Regency on the same Basis established by the said Disposition of her late Imperial Majesty, &c.

The Original of this Declaration was signed the 20th of November, N.S. by all the Synod, the Ministers and the Generals.

LONDON,

Paris, Decem. 12. They write from Naples, that his Majesty had ordered six new Men of War be put on the Stocks.

They write from Toulon, that Orders were given to fit out 12 more Men of War there, which were occasionally to be made use of, and that a considerable Number of Troops were to embark on board Transports at Marseilles.

Hague, Decem. 15. Their High Mightinesses, upon taking the Armaments into Consideration which are making on every Side, even by some Powers who talk of nothing but Peace, judge that they ought according to the Rules o sound Policy, to put themselves likewise into a respectable Situation. For this Reason a second Augmentation of 10 000 Men has been proposed, add also a Proposition made of taking 10,000 Troops into the Pay of the Repick.lblick.

Decem. 24. They write from Paris, that by the Preparations which are making in the Ports of that Kingdom, it's believed that there will next Spring be fifty Men of War ready for Service.

Cadiz Nov. 28. The Merchants are every Day more sensible than other of the Injury which the retarding of the Arrival of the Galleons causes. Their Affairs, which are thereby greatly disorder'd, would be still more so, were they not supported by Hopes given them in Letters from Madrid, which say, that the French Fleet, commanded by the Marquis d'Antin, will take up the Treasure of the Galleons at Carthagena, in order to bring it into Europe.

BOSTON, February, 3.

Last Wednesday Night and the Day following, we had very violent Storm of Wind and Snow. The Snow is now higher than has been known among us, since the vast Snow we had the 19th of February 1716,17. 'Tis to be feared that we shall have further melancholy Accounts of the Loss of Lives, Vessels and Cargoes upon our Coasts.

We hear from Scituate, that about a Fortnight ago, a Sheep, that had lain under the Snow Twenty eight Days, was found and taken out alive, tho' feeble; and being taken Care of, is now as well as any other of the Flock, tho' not quite so fat.

NEW-YORK, Feb. 23.

By our Accounts from the Country, the People here are in so great want of Fodder for their Cattel in several Places that 4 Cows are given to have one delivered in May, and that the Cold has been so severe that even Deer, Squirrells and Birds have been found froze to death, and great Quantities of Sheep have perished. And this Day Wood has been Sold for 40 Shillings per Cord.

PHILADELPHIA.

Our River is now quite open, and Vessels are daily coming in.

By the Brigt. Swallow, Capt. Hutchinson, from London, we have Prints to the 25th of December, which besides the foregoing Advices say, that the King of Prussia, to the great Surprize of all Europe, has, since the Emperor's Death, march'd an Army into Silesia, and taken Possession of that Country for himself. That the King of Spain lays claim to some of the Emperor's Dominions in Italy, and is making great Preparations to possess himself of the same. That there is a strong Confederacy form'd in Poland to set on foot a new Election; so that there is a prospect of a general War in Europe. That the Dykes in Holland being broke in the Great Storm, a great Part of the Country is drowned. That Commodore Anson was forty Days in his Voyage from England to Madeira, where he arrived the 8th of November, and sailed the 15th. The Particulars we must defer till our next.

From Maryland they write, that a Vessel is arived in that Bay from Biddeford, which spoke with a Vessel at Sea, who inform'd, that she had a few Days before seen 15 Sail of French Men of War steering their Course homewards from the West-Indies. Some doubt the Truth of this; but their Want of Provisions in the West-Indies, and the Article from Cadiz, give some colour to the Story.

On Saturday last, a Negro Boy was committed to Prison for the Murder of a white Servant in the House he belong'd to, by wounding him in the Belly with a Chizzel, so that he died in a few Days.

Extract of a Letter from Jamaica, dated Feb. 5.

Since my last to you, Admiral Ogle and Commodore Lestock are arriv'd here with their Squadrons, and near a hundred Sail of Transports, with the Marines, besides Store Ships, Fire-Ships and Hospital-Ships. My Lord Cathcart died on his Way here at Dominica, and his Entrails carried to St. Kitts, and there buried. The Marines are now under the Command of General Wentworth. Upon their arrival here, there was a most surprizing Dispatch given, in victualling, watering and refitting them out for the Expedition. Admirals Vernon and Ogle, with General Wentworth, sail'd from hence within these ten Days, with Ships of the Line of Battle, Frigates, Fire-Ships and Bombs, (as per the Inclos'd List) and near a hundred Sail of Transport Ships besides, with Marines on board. All the sick and defective Men were put ashore in the Hospitals: So that the whole Fleet is now compleatly mann'd with hearty sound bodied Men.

There has been several Prizes sent in here lately by our Northward Privateers, among which one Sloop by Capt. Drummond, loaded with Cocoa, dry Goods, &c.

P. S. The Fleet and Transports have all full four Months Provisions of every Species on board.
